

Bad Luck Follows Sleeth Family As Vicious Dog Bites Son Jess

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4188

The Walteria PTA will hold its first general meeting on Oct. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. Mrs. Ruth Kdaan will be speaker for the evening, while pupils of Mrs. Hickson's room will be on the program, and kindergarten mothers will be hostesses.

Mrs. Jane Togus was guest of honor last Wednesday at a surprise Stork Brunch given by Mrs. Roy Cornell at her home on Ward St. Neighbors gathered to wish Jane best of luck, and brought her lovely gifts. Coffee, and cake were served.

A lampshade class is being offered in the Recreation Hall on Thursday from 1 to 4 p.m. Mrs. Ruth Boas is the instructor in techniques of making shades from various materials at low cost.

Hard luck seems to follow the Robert Sleeth family of Los Coana Ave. Son Jess was bitten by a dog last week, and is under observation. As most of you know, the Sleeths were injured in an auto accident over Labor Day.

Robert Sleeth is now proudly installed as superintendent of the brand new Walteria Post Office, on Pacific Coast Hwy. It's quite a welcome addition to our community.

Visiting friends in Cherry Valley last Wednesday and Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Riggs, of Park St.

Another family gone from our midst are the Norman Franks, of Adelphi St. Norman is being inducted in the Army, and his family is planning to live near him.

Mrs. Dorothy Bebbiling, of Winlock Rd., underwent major surgery last week. Our best get-well wishes go to her.

Another Walterian now in the hospital is Mrs. Hazel Cogan, of Dalemead St. Her many friends will be glad to know that she is doing very well, and is expected home in 10 to 12 days. If any of you wish to send her mail, her address will be Naval Hospital, Dependents No. 1, Corona, Calif.

Quite a number of the members of the Walteria Business Men's Club and their wives gathered at Nickel's Ranch, on Newton St., last Thursday for a delicious chicken dinner and dance.

Sorry to hear that Kendall Baker, of Adelphi St., was involved in an auto accident last week, doing serious damage to his car. Glad to know, though, that he sustained no injuries.

Citizens Must Be Ready Says Area Defense Head

Citizens must live a life of being prepared for emergency duty, Henry S. Eaton, regional coordinator for the State Office of Civil Defense, declared, after viewing proceedings of a civil defense workshop held in Torrance Monday.

About 50 representatives of PTAs, civic groups, and neighborhood casualty areas gathered to attend the first meeting of its type in the county, at which health, medical, and welfare aspects of civil defense were explained.

The workshop, which was the idea of city civil defense director George C. Powell, drew high praise from Eaton, who declared that this plan might be used in other parts of the region to create an understanding of problems involved.

Eaton recently took over the post as regional coordinator. He was formerly a deputy chief of Los Angeles police, and an official with the federal Civil Defense Administration.

Although plans were being carried on for dispersal at present, he emphasized that the duty of any citizen now is to seek cover in case of emergency. He declared that persons who believe dispersal cannot be carried out are "foolish and futile."

"Every step a person takes gives him more chance to be alive," he said.

He said that the operational level of civil defense is, and must be on the local level, at meetings such as the one held in Torrance.

Persons in attendance at the meeting saw and heard demonstrations by Nathaniel Fryer, of the State Evacuation and Welfare Bureau; Vance Fleming, liaison officer of the County Health Department and Civil Defense; Dr. Clifton J. Alexander, of the County Health Department, and Dr. Kurt Shery, of Torrance.

Demonstrations on first aid and evacuation registration plans were given, as well as various other aspects of emergency work.

George Powell tells homeowners of civic center, pool programs

By HELEN AMOS
FA 8-1986

Some of you, but not enough of you, know that our Homeowners Assn. is now meeting again. The last meeting was at Madrona School on Sept. 21. George Powell was there to speak to us on the advantages of a new civic center and swimming pool to be erected on Torrance Blvd. and Maple Ave. It is important that everyone in our tract or in Torrance votes "yes" for this proposition. The election will be held on Oct. 19. If you need a ride to the polls, or a baby sitter, please call Helen Amos at FA 8-1986.

The next meeting of the Homeowners Assn. is to be held Oct. 19 in the Madrona School cafeteria at 8 p.m. This is your association, so why not make an appearance there and bring your neighbor with you?

Miss Cheri Janasik, of 805 Fonthill Ave., celebrated her fifth birthday last Monday. Several of her little friends came over to her house for lunch and played games. Those present were: Patti Hardinghaus, Susan Fredricks, Linda Penner, Craig Cahow, Larry Armstrong, and Glen Amos. Ice cream and cake was served after the lunch.

The Batters and the Schmidt, both of Maple Ave., were seen at the Coliseum Sunday watching the Rams and the 49ers play football.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Petrat, of 2942 Opal St., announce the arrival of Robert Bruce, born Sept. 27, at the Gardena Hospital. He weighed nine lbs., six oz., and has long black hair. Robert has an older brother at home, Steve, who is three years old. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Pyron and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Will Petrat, all of Los Angeles.

Debbie Galyardt, of 923 Felbar Ave., celebrated her second birthday on Oct. 6. She had a Humpty Dumpty cake, and a party with her relatives attending. The day was also her mother's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clemenger, of 1211 Felbar Ave., announce the arrival of their first child, Linda Carol, born Sept. 8 at the California Lutheran Hospital. She weighed six lbs., one oz. One of the nicest birthday presents her grandmother ever received was the fact that she was born on grandmother's birthday.

Mrs. Jack Hadley, of 814 Maple Ave., received a new diamond and wedding band to replace old ones as a present on her birthday Oct. 3.

That's all for this week. Maybe the column will be bigger next week, if you call in your news.
